Director's Note:

Every show leaves a bit of magic in your heart whether it's part of the story, or the way you feel when it's all said and done. For me, the magic of She Loves Me has been about the people. There are so many components in putting together a show. A great show. It's the people who show up to auditions nervous, shy, and hopeful. It's the way they all come together, working hard on music and memorization. The way they support and care for each other. It's the ones who work long hours creating set, costumes, and props - the ones who never see the limelight, but care just as much for the final product. It's the ones invisible to the audience but who are the momentum behind the whole show. It's the people. That's the piece of magic I will carry in my heart. The magic they created and get to share with you tonight.

- Amber Harrison
